

House Resolution 2081

By: Representative Dempsey of the 13th

A RESOLUTION

1 Celebrating the life of Phyllis Wright-Davis and commending her community service; and 2 for other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, at the time of her death, Phyllis Wright-Davis was quietly working on her 4 father's nomination for a Heart of the Community Award. It would never have occurred to 5 her that, in the process, she might earn one herself. But her colleagues felt her life of service
6 to Rome and Floyd County more than qualified her for the honor; and

7 WHEREAS, she dedicated her community service to the youth, to the elderly and to 8 low-income families throughout Rome and Floyd County for over 20 years. A poised and 9 articulate professional, Phyllis Wright-Davis received her Bachelor of Arts degree from 10 Spellman College and an Associate of Science from Gupton Jones College of Funeral 11 Services in Atlanta; and

12 WHEREAS, returning to Rome in the 1980's, Phyllis Wright-Davis volunteered her time to 13 feed residents at the yearly Love Feast, which provides a hot dinner to anyone in need.
14 During the event, she provided clothes and personal items to anyone who needed them. She 15 was a volunteer board member for the United Way, South Rome Redevelopment
16 Corporation, the City of Rome's Tourism Committee, the American Red Cross, the Salvation 17 Army, and the Heart of the Community Foundation; and

18 WHEREAS, few people volunteered with such vigor. She most appreciated anonymous 19 service, giving without expectation of fanfare, good deeds without a glimmer of reward or 20 notice. As a result, she served as a Certified Facilitator for Nurturing Parenting God's Way.
21 She was a graduate of Leadership Rome and received the National NAACP Youth Advisor
22 Award of the Year for four consecutive years. Under her leadership, the youth of the NAACP
23 Rome/Floyd Youth Council provided desserts for the prisoners at the Blacks Bluff Road 24 Prison on Thanksgiving and Christmas. She also served as Secretary of the Martin Luther 25 King, Jr. Commission; and

1 WHEREAS, in one of her memoirs, Phyllis noted that her work as a volunteer mentor for 2 Annie K. Davis Elementary School brought her great joy. She believed in motivating 3 students. She felt that good work deserved notice, so she helped initiate a trolley ride for 4 students making the Honor Roll each semester. Innovative and hardly predictable, she looked 5 for ways to entice young people to learn; and

6 WHEREAS, the oldest daughter of Joe and Dorothy Wright, Phyllis was the wife of Ralph
7 Davis, mother of two sons, Brian and Phillip Davis, and grandmother to Jaden and Brianne
8 Davis. A faithful member of Thankful Baptist Church, she volunteered her time to prepare 9 lunch for the needy at the church. She and her husband, Ralph, mentored Club Hero 10 participants in a drug prevention program for teenagers. It was not uncommon for her to 11 provide funds to aid substance abuse clients who needed bus tickets for transportation to 12 treatment centers. Hers was a truly anonymous form of giving back; and

13 WHEREAS, Phyllis Wright-Davis lived her life to the fullest each day, every day. As her 14 biography suggests, she was empathetic, bright, connected, and genuine. She was one of the 15 most individual of volunteers. She picked her involvement carefully and she knew that if she 16 served well, her life would be her greatest legacy. For Phyllis Wright-Davis, it is a legacy 17 dominated by good deeds.

18 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 19 the members of this body celebrate the life well-lived of Phyllis Wright-Davis and offer 20 condolences to her friends and family upon her passing.

21 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized 22 and directed to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to the family of Phyllis 23 Wright-Davis.
